

Profile

Michael Long, PhD

Technical Director –
Serology/Immunology
DMC University Laboratories
4201 St. Antoine
Detroit, MI 48201
313-745-5730
plong@dmc.org

Administrative Contact:
Melinda Montilla
313-993-0539

Areas

Immunology
Serology
Flow Cytometry

Biography

Dr. Long received his undergraduate degree in biology from the Villanova University and a Master Degree in Immunology from Seton Hall University. He worked at the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry in the kidney transplant program before returning to pursue his Ph.D. in Immunology. Upon completion of his Ph.D., he did postdoctoral work at the Mayo Clinic in Tumor Biology. In 1983, he became the Director of the Immunology Laboratory at Childrens Hospital of Michigan.

Research

Dr. Long's research activities involve autoimmune diseases, HIV and inherited immunodeficiency's. He is on the Advisory Board for the State of Michigan New Born Screening Program for (SCID) severe combined immunodeficiency.

Fellowship

Postdoctoral Fellow in Clinical Microbiology
2007-2009

University of Rochester School of Medicine & Dentistry, Rochester, NY

Post Graduate Training

PhD
(1979) Wayne State School of Medicine – Detroit, MI

Fellowship
(1979-1983) Mayo Clinic and Foundation - Minneapolis, MN